Chapter 1 by jlt

The people are sheep as I have known for some time. They see me as the new enemy and I must hide. My family would be baffled by how the world had turned into this self destructive mine field. Nobody is safe anymore, not even those who thought they were in control. The only people who still hold any power here are The Mask, with their corrupting schools of thought. Never have I feared so much for my life, not even when I was in the bunkers. I hear their footsteps, I have go before my message is stopped. My only hope is that someone somewhere is still listening...
